4 11.12.2008 There are concurrent findings of fact against the petitioners in both the impugned orders contained in annexures 2 and 3. The Court would not like to exercise discretion by allowing the petitioners to go into nitty-gritty of the facts and evidence afresh before the writ court. The Court does not find any legal infirmity which emerge from the two orders which have been assailed. This writ application has no merit and it is dismissed as such.
